Project Title:

Spooky Village

Short Description:

Story: In a misty, forgotten village, a lone hut sits beneath a twisted banyan tree. No one knows who lives inside. Some says an old blind woman, some says a witch.

Outside the hut, swaying gently from a rusty hook, hangs an emergency light. But this is no ordinary lantern. Forged long ago by a wandering mystic, it holds a strange enchantment: when the light glows, the winds hush, the owls retreat, and even the shadows seem to rest. Nature itself bows to its calm.

No one knows who hangs the light. Some say the hut is empty. Others speak of a blind woman bound to its glow. Every night, the light turns on—until one night, it didn't.
